of the World, the Author and Finisher of our Faith, the great Myftery of Godlineſs, the Word that was made Fleſh, to ſave thy Servants from their Sins,

Have mercy upon me.

Save me, O God, for I come unto Thee in the multitude of thy Mercies, and in thy Fear will I fall down and worſhip Thee in thy holy Temple, that Thou mayſt

Have mercy upon me.

Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender Mercies, and thy loving-kindneſs which has been ever of old. O remember not the Sins and Frailties of thy Servant, but ſpare me, O Lord, ſpare me for thy Goodneſs, and

Have mercy upon me.

From my Unworthineſs to receive thy bleſſed Body and Blood, by which thou haſt redeemed me; from all carnal, vain, and earthly Imaginations in this thy holy Sacrament, from all miſbelief and incredulity of thy Word; from all defects of Sanctity, Love, and
